

Rethink Pretty

In a time of climate change & mass extinction,
how and for whom we garden
matters more than ever.

A New Garden Ethic

"The most important thing a keynote speaker can do is challenge your assumptions and enable you to think in different ways.... Benjamin successfully navigated this through his heartfelt words, humor, and easy speaking style."

"Absolutely moving, inspired, poetic message. This lecture will change the way I garden forever."

"In the garden traditions of our time, Benjamin sees both the worst kind of hypocrisy... and the best kind of bridge for overcoming and transcending destructive short term thinking and actions."
